(a) whether it is a fact 'hat the Indian Standard? Institution (1ST) has since been ceased and is replaced by Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS);

(b) whether the consumers are still not aware of this modification and insist on ISI mark goods;

(c) whether in view of public interest, Government propose to aware the consumers to buy only BIS mark goods and the details of the more consumer item likely to be included in the list of BIS; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUP-PLIES (SHRI D. L. BAITHA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) No Sir. The reason is that though the name of the organisation has changed from Indian Standards Institution to Bureau of Indian Standards, the standard mark continues to be based on the familiar monogram ISI.

(c) Since the establishment of the Bureau> through a number of programmes un Doordarshan and All India Radio, activities of the Bureau are highlighted and consumers are made aware of the advantages of buying only ISI mark goods.

(d) Some of the new consumer items proposed to be included into the fold of - Compulsory ISI Certification are as follows :-

(i) Synrhetic detergents; (ii) Clinical thermometers; (Hi) Infant foods;

(iv) Rubber Tubing for connecting LPG Cylinder and Stove; and (v) Sphygommanometers.

In considering these proposals, problems relating to implementation, preparatory steps especially by small scale and tiny units and socio-economic consideration have to be kept in view.
